The firm

Broadfield UK (formerly BDB Pitmans) is a law firm that serves mid-market clients, with deep expertise in multiple practice areas and a strong commitment to client service. As trusted advisors in navigating complexities of law, the Broadfield team is comprised of entrepreneurial experts and leaders who provide legal strategies and solutions tailored to meet the unique needs of each client. With offices currently in London, Cambridge, Reading and Southampton, Broadfield UK has a team of over 420 experts dedicated to building lasting client relationships grounded in trust and integrity. 2024, Broadfield UK became the founding member firm of Broadfield.

The opportunity

Broadfield Work Experience programmes are designed to give attendees an initial insight into the workings of a busy law firm. Amongst other activities, this could include:

- Network with a wide variety of colleagues from across the firm's legal and business services sectors, hearing about their own journeys and personal insights into their profession and ask your own questions.
- Develop your CV skills with their HR team.
- Spend an afternoon with your department of interest, experiencing the day to day life of a law firm professional as well as pick up new skills along the way.
- Hear from colleagues about alternative routes into the legal sector, such as Solicitor Apprenticeships.
- Engage in an activity that challenges your teamwork and legal research skills.
- Develop your presentation, public speaking and personal branding skills.
